Dear Petitioner,

You are receiving this notice because you have asked the Hamilton County Juvenile Court to decide issues of custody or visitation for a child. All parties to custody and visitation cases in Hamilton County Juvenile Court are required to complete the Positive Parenting Program, or Triple P.

There are no costs and you can use the program online from your home. It's an individualized program of six to eight sections called "modules" to help support parents in their journey to raising happy and resilient children. Each module will take less than one hour to complete.

Once complete, you will be issued a certificate that you must present, either in print or from your phone, to the Magistrate or Judge assigned to your case. Please come to that first hearing prepared to discuss what you learned. Failure to provide proof of completion will impact your case. . Your certificate of completion is valid for one year and you do not have to retake the Triple P course if a new custody complaint is filed during that year. You still must show your certificate of completion at the first hearing.

If you are unable to complete the course prior to your first court date, you are still required to attend your scheduled hearing. At the hearing, you may ask for more time from the Magistrate or Judge in order to complete the course.

TRIPLE P: POSITIVE PARENTING PROGRAM FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is Triple P Online?

Triple P Online offers tools and strategies to parents to build good relationships with their child/teenager, set boundaries and rules, and follow up with consequences that are not harmful. Triple P is one of the few parenting programs that is evidence-based and proven to work.

Am I required to complete the Triple P course?

Yes.

*For a dependency action where the child is under protective supervision, or in the legal custody of Job and Family Services, this requirement does not apply to the parent, legal custodian, guardian, or GAL.

How much time does Triple P take to complete?

There are six sections for parents/guardians of children 0-12; there are eight sections for parents/guardians of teens. Each section takes less than one hour to complete, and includes a mix of videos, worksheets, tips, and activities. You do not need to do all sections at one time. You can move through the sections at your own pace. You will receive a certificate when you complete the course.

What do I do with my certificate of completion?

Custody case: You must provide your certificate of completion to the Court at your first court hearing. Failure to complete this course may negatively impact the outcome of your case. Your certificate is valid for one year, and you do not have to retake the course if there is an additional custody filing within that one year window. You still must show your certificate of completion at the first hearing after any new filing.

Probation: Provide your certificate of completion to your child's Probation Officer before your child's Probation term ends.

What is the cost to complete Triple P?

It's free. The State of Ohio pays for the program.

How do I access Triple P?

Use the link or QR code below. You can access it from your home computer, cell phone, library, or anywhere with internet access. Remember there are two courses – for parents/guardians of children 0-12 and parents/guardians of teens – so be sure to complete the correct course.
